

Terms & Conditions

Before you proceed with applying for the internship opportunity, it's crucial to carefully review and understand the terms and conditions outlined below.

1. Agreement to Terms

By taking the step of submitting your internship application, you are entering into a binding agreement. This agreement signifies your commitment to comply with all the terms and conditions outlined in this document. It's essential to thoroughly read and comprehend these terms before proceeding with your application. This is a fundamental legal agreement between you and the company offering the internship.

2. Eligibility

Your eligibility to be considered for this internship position depends on your ability to meet the specific criteria laid out in the official internship posting. These criteria might include academic qualifications, technical skills, experience, or other prerequisites deemed necessary for the role. It's recommended that you review the internship posting carefully to ensure you possess the required qualifications before submitting your application.

3. Confidentiality

The company places high importance on maintaining the confidentiality of all information shared during the internship application process. This means that any personal details, academic records, work samples, or any other sensitive information you provide as part of your application will be treated with utmost confidentiality. Rest assured that your private information will not be disclosed to any unauthorized individuals or entities.

4. Intellectual Property

During the course of your internship, any intellectual property rights associated with the work you produce will be considered the property of the company. This includes any innovative ideas, designs, software, content, or other creative outputs that you contribute while fulfilling your internship responsibilities. It's crucial to understand that any intellectual property developed during this period will be owned by the company in accordance with this clause.

Terms & Conditions

5. Termination

While both parties enter into this internship arrangement with the best intentions, it's important to acknowledge that the company reserves the right to terminate the internship at any given time and for any valid reason. This termination could result from factors such as performance, behavior, company restructuring, or unforeseen circumstances. Being aware of this possibility will ensure that you approach the internship with a clear understanding of its potential outcomes.

6. Documentation

Upon successfully completing the internship program, you'll have the opportunity to obtain official documentation acknowledging your achievements. However, it's important to note that a documentation fee of Rs.99 is required to cover the costs associated with preparing and providing the internship certificate and other relevant documents. This fee contributes to administrative tasks necessary for documenting your participation and accomplishments.

7. Disclaimer

These terms and conditions of use, often referred to as "Terms," are more than just a set of rules. They constitute a legally binding agreement between you and CodersCave, the entity providing the internship. This disclaimer serves as a reminder that these terms are not to be taken lightly and carry legal implications. It's recommended that you seek further clarification or legal advice if any aspect of these terms is unclear to you.
